Rigging Services

Did you realize PSAV is the world's premier hospitality rigging company?

PSAV does rigging, too

As the world's leading AV provider, PSAV® Presentation Services takes hospitality rigging to a new level. We're the single point of contact for event technology to your event planners, and ready to handle all your rigging and CAD requirements. PSAV makes communication easy, capitalizing on synergies between audiovisual set-ups and rigging set-ups. Now that's peace of mind.

Unique products — Advanced services — Safety first

Thanks to our unique product offering, our experienced production riggers can offer technologically advanced services. These include PSAV's rigging advance process, and an on-site inventory of hoists, truss, hardware and lifts to manage events, from initial design to load out. And with PSAV, it's always safety first. We employ the highest standards in our comprehensive safety and risk management program.

Increased revenues

When you work with PSAV, you get a company that provides a full range of event technology services, rather than someone who just provides rigging. This drives your overall revenues up. By coordinating all your event technology, PSAV facilitates faster room turns, with further revenue opportunities.

As a hotelier, you have peace of mind in knowing PSAV has you covered:

- Consultation Partner — for upgrades, new construction, modernization
- Independent Safety Experts — professional structural engineers provide approved, stamped and rated structural diagrams
- Hands-on Training — supported through PSAV's dedicated rigging facility
